SICOR
SOCIETA' INDUSTRIALE COSTRUZIONE RIDUTTORI

The Sicor., expresses the following

Company Quality Policy:

- Satisfying the applicable requirements and improving customer satisfaction;
- Verification and analysis of the context in which the organisation operates;
- Understanding of the needs and expectations of stakeholders;
- Dissemination of an approach based on risk analysis;
- Continuous improvement of the processes for the management and production of traction machines for lifts and elevators.

This is pursued with an entrepreneurial desire, made possible by the willingness and willingness to make available the resources necessary to achieve this goal.

Particularly, the Company practice and will practice and systematically:

- Analysis of business organizational processes by periodically verifying the context in which the organization operates and the risks / opportunities in order to monitor their effectiveness and to highlight them for their improvement according to the applicable edition of UNI EN ISO 9001;
- The involvement of all employees in the continuous improvement of products and services;
- Analyzing the needs and requirements of relevant stakeholders;
- The provision of training and information tools necessary and appropriate for the improvement of production;
- Provision of equipment, machinery and information necessary for the proper execution of the activities;
- Providing workers with tools to improve safe working conditions and improve the work environment itself;
- The assessment of the measure of meeting the needs, demands and expectations of customers;
- Verification of compliance with customer requirements, customer specifications, customer requests in terms of delivery

Date Signature

Managing Director

Rovereto, 18.09.2018

Baroncini Marco